CONSUMER PROTECTION & COMMERCIAL LOYALTY

Consumer Protection & Commercial Loyalty

The team is responsible for advising our clients – from a wide spectrum of industries – for the adequate launch of new products and their adaptation to local regulations, including general and specific regulations of each product, at national and provincial level.

They also advise them on the launch of marketing campaigns: they review the advertising pieces, draw up their bases and conditions, and also draw up contracts with suppliers of goods and services necessary for the development of their commercial and industrial activities.

This team has extensive experience in consumer contracts, terms and conditions and issues related to electronic contracting, an issue that increasingly concerns the companies that trust us.

Their work is not limited to counselling alone. They also represent their clients in administrative proceedings, in the context of claims and proceedings, and in court, including the growing case of class actions. For the daily development of their tasks, team members take care to remain permanently updated, to ensure that they are always at the forefront in this area that is characterized by constantly evolving.
